Present: Mark Kerrigan, David Gibbs, Sue Humphrys, Annie Kerrigan, Ross McDonald and Meron Lewcock.

Apologies: Natalie Lewcock

Minutes of last meeting: Read by Meron Lewcock. 2nd by Mark Kerrigan.

Business arising from Minutes:

- * Sale of Old School: We have two new evaluations. 1 from Ray White and 1 from the Professionals. We will advertise for expressions of interest on Facebook two weeks before it goes onto the Market. Information will also go on to our Website.
- * The Museum is joining to the Town Garage Sale 5th of May and we need some more helpers on the day to man the stall and the Museum as we are also open that day too.
- * A working Bee to tidy up the Old School and rearrange some storage in the roller door shed will be held 9.00am on Sat. the 13th of April. We need to clear out the items stored in the school and give it a clean before it is sold. If you could help on the day, please contact the secretary. [ph. No. below]
- * Meron Lewcock and Sue Humphrys are putting together an updated Museum blurb for the History SA's web page for the Saddleworth & District Historical Soc. Inc. as the Museum has changed its look in the last few years.
- * Tuesday, the 4th of June at 10.00am is the date set for our Wohlers Free High Tea and Tanunda Museum tour. The cost to you will only be a $3.00 entry fee for the Museum. We need a minimum of ten people [max. of 15] and we will be car pooling if you need a ride. Please let the Secretary know if you would like to come, it should be a very enjoyable day.
- * Painting the stobie pole tractor panels is still ongoing.
- * Arranging the Badges & Stickpins is still an ongoing project.
- * Museum self-evaluation. Ongoing

Correspondence In-:

- * Email Invitation from Balaklava Museum for their History event – Lazy Daze & Old School Days opening a new display Pavilion on Sunday May 26th 2019 at Centenary Hall, May Terrace, Balaklava 1.30pm following by afternoon tea RSVP by May 18th 2019. Lorraine Jenner [Sec.] ph. 0429811573
- * Email from The People's Choice Community Lottery, the Paper ticket sales will commence 11th of May and we will be advised when we are to collect them from the Branch Network. Close of lottery ticket sales 30th of August. Drawn 9th of Oct.
- * Email from Tim Edwards re: Updated Saddleworth Old School Building evaluation.

Correspondence out-:

- * Phone call to Wohlers to arrange the Free High Tea and Tanunda Museum visit.

Treasurers Report: Read by Sue Humphrys. 2nd by Ross McDonald.

New Business-:

- * P.R. work from David Gibbs. He spoke to the driver of Greenock Coach Charter, as to the Saddleworth Museum being put forward as a place to visit.
- * November is 'Movember' month and an idea has been put forwards to have a Barber display, perhaps in the Library to promote it. We have a barber display in the window at the moment.
- * At this stage we are postponing joining the History Month Activity site as we are prioritizing on the sale of the Old School and the completion of the displays. The Museum is still open on its advertised days and by request.

General Business:

- * A Survey will be going out to find out what people think about the Museum and ways to improve patronage and ideas encourage more volunteers. If you have any ideas beforehand, you can email us or post them or drop them in the Museum letterbox on Burra Rd.

Meeting ended @: 3.35pm. Next meeting to be held: 2:00pm. Sunday 26th of May 2019.
